At its session on the 19th day of November, 2017 the Executive Council of Tel Aviv University resolved to honor

The Batsheva Dance Company in recognition of its enduring contribution for over half a century to enhancing Israeli cultural life; its rich repertoire of productions that showcase artistic originality and that, under the visionary direction of Ohad Naharin, have transformed it into one of the world’s most admired and beloved dance companies; its bold choreographic voice and readiness to break new ground in dance movement and expression; its uncompromising commitment to nurturing both excellence and egalitarianism in artistic creation; and its important role in exporting Israel’s cultural riches to international audiences, by conferring upon it an
