At its session on the 28th day of November, 2016 the Executive Council of Tel Aviv University resolved to honor

Shira Shofty

in recognition of her tremendous contribution to Israeli society over four decades as an inspirational educator and scholastic visionary; her profound belief in the power of education to broaden opportunity and bridge social gaps; her passionate and far-sighted leadership of the Unit for Science Oriented Youth as a place for gifted youngsters from across the social spectrum to realize their academic potential; her crucial part in preparing new generations of youngsters for future leadership roles throughout Israel’s military, industrial, educational and academic spheres; and her thirty years of dedicated service at Tel Aviv University, by conferring upon her an

HONORARY FELLOWSHIP of Tel Aviv University
